PUBLIC NOTICE

COUNCIL OFFICE TO REMAIN OPEN

The Brewarrina Shire Council office, including service NSW agency and Centrelink agency are open for business and will remain open for as long as is possible.

This pandemic is likely to be around for six months and I cannot justify the closure of Council's office and denial of service to the community.

Council is an essential service and I have taken the view that unless there is an unexpected decision by Government or a Health issue, we will continue to provide services to our community.

There are new requirements to restrict the number of people entering the building, hand sanitiser, increased hygiene and the recording of customers etc., these are all practical measures that have been adopted to secure the health and welfare of our employees and customers.

Brewarrina Shire is here to serve the community and that is our primary focus.
